Board of Supervisors of Elections Emergency Absentee Voting Information and Application

(Sections. 4.28.010, 4.28.020 and 4.28.030)

A voter may request an emergency absentee ballot, if after the Tuesday immediately preceding the election, one of the following conditions subsequently arises or occurs:

1. Employment causes absence from the City;
2. Sudden illness or accident of voter;
3. Death or serious illness in immediate family.

An Election Board employee or election judge is also eligible to apply for an emergency absentee ballot.

If the voter is able to appear in person, the application may be completed and retained in the Elections Office until Election Day.

If the voter is unable to appear in person, he/she must appoint an agent, who is a registered voter in the City of Annapolis. An agent may only act for one voter per election.

The agent is required to comply with the following instructions:

4. Pick up an application and agent affidavit form from the Elections Office;
5. Deliver an application to the absent voter;
6. Return the complete application to the Elections Office;
7. Receive and deliver a ballot to the absent voter;
8. Witness that the voter completes and seals the ballot;
9. Sign the agent affidavit in the presence of the voter;
10. Return the completed affidavit and ballot to the Elections Office.

An agent may assist a voter in filling out an application. However, an agent may not assist a voter in marking a ballot. Only an election judge may assist a voter in marking a ballot.

All emergency ballots must be received in the elections office no later than the closing of the polls on Election Day (8:00 p.m.)
