THE CITY OF ANNAPOLIS
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM FY 2011
APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Introduction

The City of Annapolis is in its 26th year as a recipient of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Over the years, these federal funds have provided the City the opportunity to address the housing and community development needs of Annapolis' low and moderate-income citizens. The City has used CDBG funds to provide homeownership opportunities, housing rehabilitation services, and support various human service organizations.

Much of the success of the Annapolis community development program lies with citizen participation. The City's many caring citizens and community organizations help to identify programs and projects for CDBG funding. Once the City makes funding available, these same groups and individuals work to carry out the approved programs and projects. In Fiscal Year 2011, which begins July 1, 2010, the City expects to receive approximately $400,000 in CDBG funds. Of this amount, the city will spend 85 percent on housing related projects and 15 percent on public service activities.

Program Requirements for the Use of CDBG Funds

HUD requires that the activities funded with CDBG funds meet several criteria:

1. The project must meet a HUD National Objective
2. The project must be eligible based on HUD's definition
3. The project must meet local goals and objectives as outlined in the City's Consolidated Housing and Community Plan.

In addition to the HUD requirements, the City has several factors that it considers when evaluating projects.

1. National Objective

To qualify for CDBG funds, a project must meet the Low and Moderate Income (LMI) Benefit National Objective. This means that an activity must benefit LMI persons or households. This is accomplished by serving individuals or households that earn 80 percent of area median income (AMI) and below (see chart below), or by serving persons presumed to be LMI such as those with special needs, persons with disabilities, homeless persons and the elderly. Another way to meet the LMI benefit criteria is to provide a service that assists a minimum of 51 percent low and moderate-income persons OR the project must be located in an area predominantly inhabited by LMI residents.

HUD LOW AND MODERATE INCOME GUIDELINES EFFECTIVE MARCH 2009
Family Size	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Max. Household Income	$43,050	$49,200	$55,350	$61,500	$66,400	$71,350	$76,350	$81,200

2. Eligible Activities

HUD regulations also specify categories of activities that are eligible for CDBG funding. Generally, the two types of projects are:

1. Public service activities (e.g. operating expenses for human services), The City is restricted by law to spending no more than 15% of its funds on public service activities
2. Capital Projects (e.g., construction, rehabilitation, acquisition, demolition, clearance, etc.)

All proposed projects must be located in the City and benefit primarily Annapolis citizens. If the project is not located in the City, please provide documentation that shows the project serves primarily Annapolis residents.

According to federal CDBG regulations outlined at 24 CFR 570, the basic eligible activities include a variety of uses including homeownership activities, rental housing activities, public facilities, and public services. The following is a list of possible activities that may be funded with CDBG dollars.

- Acquisition of real property by purchase, long-term lease, or donation
- Acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or installation of public facilities and improvements, such as water and sewer facilities, streets, neighborhood centers, and the conversion of school buildings for eligible purposes
- Clearance, demolition, and removal of buildings and improvements
- Provision of public services, including but not limited to those concerned with crime prevention, drug abuse, education, homebuyer down payment assistance, energy conservation, and recreational needs
- Repairs to sidewalks, parks, playgrounds, publicly owned utilities and public buildings (in areas showing physical deterioration)
- Relocation payments and other assistance for permanently and temporarily relocated individuals, families, businesses, non-profit organizations, and farm operations
- Housing services, including housing counseling, loan processing, and inspections
- Direct homeownership assistance to low- or moderate-income households

- Rehabilitation and Preservation of privately owned buildings, Low-income public housing, publicly or commercially owned industrial buildings, non-profit owned non-residential buildings, manufactured housing.
- Code enforcement, including costs incurred for inspection for code violations and enforcement of codes in deteriorating or deteriorated areas.
- Historic preservation, including rehabilitation, preservation, or restoration of publicly and privately owned historic properties
- Economic Development Activities including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation or installation of commercial or industrial buildings or real property; the provision of assistance (such as loans, grants, and technical assistance) to private non-profit business; microenterprise assistance to facilitate economic development, including financial support (such as grants and loans), technical assistance, and counseling.
- Activities by Community-Based Development Organizations (CBDOs) as grants or loans to any CBDO qualified to carry out neighborhood revitalization, community economic development, or energy conservation projects. CBDOs qualifying under HUD criteria are organizations organized under state or local laws to engage in community development activities in specific geographic areas within communities. The complete list of HUD criteria for qualifying as a CBDO can be found at 24 CFR 570.204.
- Planning, Urban Environmental Design and Policy-Planning-Management-Capacity Building Activities including planning activities which consist of data gathering, studies, analysis, preparation of plans and the identification of actions that will implement such plans.
- Policy-planning-management-capacity building activities that enable a recipient to determine its needs, set goals and objectives, and devise, evaluate, and carry out projects and activities.

In general, activities that are not specifically identified as eligible are considered by HUD to be ineligible. The following activities are specifically identified by HUD as activities that are not eligible for CDBG funding: acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of buildings for the general conduct of government, general government expenses, political activities, purchase of construction equipment, fire protection equipment, furnishings and personal properties, operating, and maintenance expenses, income payments, and the construction of new housing.

4. Selection Criteria

In addition to the HUD requirements discussed previously, the City also takes into consideration the following factors when evaluating a CDBG project for funding:

- The recommended activities must provide maximum public benefits relative to cost.
- The organization must define the outcomes and measurement of those outcomes.
- The project must leverage other funding sources to the greatest extent possible, demonstrating cost sharing opportunities, and in-kind contributions.
- The project must be ready to go which may include factors such as zoning compliance, site control, funds other than CDBG are in place, etc.
- The project cannot duplicate services being offered by another organization.
- If the proposal is a capital project, project cost estimates must be accurate and reflect Davis-Bacon wage rates, if applicable.
- The sponsor must have the administrative capacity to successfully carry out the project, e.g., has previous experience with similar projects

To discuss whether a specific project meets both HUD's and the City's requirements, you may contact Theresa Wellman, Chief of Community Development at (410) 263-7961 extension 7798 or e-mail tcw@annapolis.gov. Those submitting a new or first-time proposal are strongly encouraged to contact Ms. Wellman to discuss their proposal before submitting an application.

Application Process

Applications for community development projects are accepted annually on a competitive basis. Applicants are given approximately 45 days from the date the application is available to the deadline to prepare applications. The submitted applications are evaluated in a three-step process: threshold review, project evaluation, and funding recommendations. Only projects that meet the threshold requirements and have complete applications received by the deadline will go forward for project evaluation. To meet the threshold requirements, the project must meet a national objective as required by HUD and include proposed activities that are eligible as defined by HUD.

All projects that meet the threshold requirements will be evaluated by City program staff. Program staff will make recommendations to the Housing and Community Development Committee (HCDC). The City's HCDC has oversight responsibility for the CDBG program and the use of CDBG funds. The Committee makes its recommendation for funding to the City Council, which approves all CDBG-funded projects. The CDBG process for FY 2011 is as follows:

Oct. 2009	CDBG staff sends out applications to nonprofit organizations and interested citizens for projects eligible for CDBG funding. City staff assists community groups and nonprofit organizations in developing proposals.
Nov. 2009	HCDC holds a public hearing on November 2, 2009 to inform the public of the availability of funds, obtain citizens' views on housing and community development needs, and to review CDBG Program progress.
Dec. 2009	Applications are due on December 10, 2009 at 4:30 p.m. Following submittal, CDBG staff reviews proposals to determine eligibility and prepares questions for the February public hearing. Ineligible projects are returned to the applicant and are not sent forward.
Feb.- Mar. 2010	The HCDC holds public hearing on February 1, 2010 to hear presentations on the projects by the project sponsors. The CDBG Staff makes funding recommendations to the Mayor and the HCDC. The HCDC selects the projects to recommend to the City Council for funding.
April 2010	The HCDC submits its recommendations to the City Council for inclusion in the City's FY 2011 budget and Action Plan. The Action Plan is the City's application to HUD for the CDBG funds. The recommendations are reviewed and approved by the Mayor and City Council at the April 26, 2010 Council Meeting. CDBG staff publishes a notice in the local newspaper inviting the public to comment on the Action Plan.
May 2010	Once the Council has approved the projects, the Staff submits the FY 2011 Action Plan to HUD May 2010.
June 2010	CDBG staff completes the environmental review process for capital projects and notifies the awarded applicants.
July - August 2010	HUD approves the Action Plan and releases the funds through the environmental review process. The funds are available beginning July 1, 2010 for the selected projects. All CDBG awarded applicants must have an executed Subrecipient Agreement with the City prior to disbursement of funds.
