Residential Parking Permit Information FY 2010

Please read all of the information provided below.

The following documents are required each time you apply for a residential parking permit.

1. Completed and personally signed application form
2. Copy of current Maryland driver's license showing your name and your address in the residential parking district.
3. Copy of current vehicle registration card for each vehicle showing your name and address in the residential parking district.
4. Check payable to City of Annapolis as calculated from the chart below for your district, number of vehicles, off-street parking availability (driveway, garage, parking space) at your address, and month of purchase.

If your current driver's license and/or current vehicle registration reflect an address outside the parking district, you must also provide one of the following to support your claim to residency in the parking district.

1. Property Owner - Proof of property ownership and current residency: current tax bill or SDAT printout, and current utility bill, OR
 2. Tenants - Copy of lease in your name for licensed residential rental property in the parking district, covering the permit period. (The residential parking permit expires when your lease expires.), OR
 3. Military - Documents issued by the U.S. military authorities proving your residency in the parking district.
- The City may require additional proofs of residency at its discretion.
 - No permits are issued for vehicles with unpaid City parking citations.
 - Permits expire when you move from the parking district.
 - No refunds on unused portion of parking permit period.
