December 8 – Neighborhood Safety Council from 6:30pm to 8pm at Annapolis Police Headquarters at 199 Taylor Av

In the last 24 hours Annapolis Police officers responded to 70 calls for service and arrested 8 people.

Theft from Vehicle – 201500005517 – 1800 block of George Av – 11/28 from 2am to 4am: A locked truck bed mounted toolbox was forced open and tools removed. The tools were found on the ground next to the truck.

Burglary – 201500005522 - 100 block of Academy St – 11/25 at 2pm to 11/30 at 7pm: The front door to the home was forced open and a black metal safe and a Remington shotgun were stolen

Handgun Violations – 201500005525 – 700 block of Newtowne Dr – 12/01 at 2:15am: Officers responded to the area for a report of two men wearing masks and dark clothing threatening someone with handguns. When officers arrived they located Marlin Simms, 28, of Churchton wearing a black facemask and dark clothing. Officers approached Simms and he ran away, holding onto a bulge in his waistband. An officer in a vehicle struck Simms as he ran across a parking lot. Simms continued to run, trying to enter a cab, but officers caught up to him and discovered a loaded handgun in his waistband. During the arrest Simms started to have convulsions and was transported to Anne Arundel Medical Center. He was treated and released. Simms also had marijuana and cocaine in his pockets. Simms was charged with 14 criminal counts including possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. He is being held at the Jennifer Road Detention Center on $300,000 bond.

Stolen Vehicle – 201500005526 – 100 block of Brightwater Dr – 11/30 at 10pm to 12/01 at 7am: A green 2012 Toyota Camry, MD reg. 5BZ5696, was stolen. The owner reported he locked the Camry, however a spare key to the vehicle was stored inside. A key to a pick up truck was also stored inside the Camry. The truck was found with the key in the door lock and papers were stolen from inside.

HoHo with the PoPo

Officers from the Annapolis Police Department will be outside 220 Main Street on December 3, 10, and 17 from 7pm to 9pm, during Midnight Madness and Eleventh Hour, to hand out free cups of hot chocolate to the community. Stop and sip a yummy cup of hot chocolate and meet some of Annapolis' Finest. Take a few minutes and get to know your local law enforcement team, even better let your kids know how approachable the police are, should they ever need help. Come sip CoCo with the PoPo!

Neighborhood Safety Council Meeting

The next Neighborhood Safety Council Meeting is scheduled for December 8th from 6:30pm to 8pm at Annapolis Police Headquarters located at 199 Taylor Av. This meeting is open to anyone who wishes to attend. Our speakers at this meeting will be Timothy Seipp, supervisor of our Communications Section, and Auxiliary Officers Joann McCann and Max Balzano. We will also cover current crime trends in the city. Food will be served so please RSVP to Corporal Amy Miguez at 410-268-9000 ext. 7261 or amiguez@annapolis.gov.

Holiday Crime Prevention Tips

Burglars view the holidays as an opportunity to steal cash, credit cards, and gifts from your home. To help prevent burglaries make sure your doors and windows are locked, even if you are leaving for just a few minutes. Make sure you don't have a spare key to your home that is easily accessible to burglars. If you are going to be away during the holidays have your mail held, have a neighbor check on your house, and put lights on timers to turn on and off automatically. After the holidays avoid putting empty boxes from your new computer, game console, etc out on the curb for pick up. If possible, break down the boxes and put them inside your recycling container. Burglars love to know what expensive gifts you have inside your home for them to steal. If you see suspicious activity, report it to police at 410-268-4141.
