June 9 – Neighborhood Watch Meeting from 6:30pm to 8pm at 199 Taylor Av

In the last 72 hours Annapolis Police officers responded to 293 calls for service and arrested 21 people.

Good News – On 05/31 Gordon Collins, 31, of Glen Burnie was arrested and charged with an attempted burglary and a burglary that occurred in the unit block of Colonial Av. On 05/29 at 11:29pm a resident in the unit block of Colonial Av saw a subject in the backyard trying to open doors and windows. The subject left the area on a bicycle. Officers checked the area for the subject and located Gordon Collins. Collins was identified and questioned, but could not be charged at that time. Property belonging to another home in the unit block of Colonial Av was found in the rear yard of the first home. After contacting the second resident it was learned that a second home had been burglarized. Through investigation Detectives were able to identify Gordon Collins as the suspect in both burglaries. Collins was arrested and charged with numerous burglary and attempted burglary charges and possession of CDS. Collins is being held at the Jennifer Road Detention Center without bond.

Lock Your Block

One of the easiest ways to become a victim is to leave your car and home unlocked. Please help Annapolis Police Department prevent thefts in your neighborhood by making sure your block is locked. Take the time to lock your vehicle and remove valuable items. When you leave your home double check the door and make sure all windows are closed and locked. Report suspicious activity to police by calling 410-268-4141 or, in an emergency, dial 911. If you are a victim of a crime report it to police quickly and provide officers with descriptions and/or serial numbers of the items taken. Talk to your neighbors and encourage them to lock your block. Check out this great video from Columbus Division of Police <http://bit.ly/1CzGKJv>. They interview incarcerated burglars about how they commit their crimes.
