

APD Media Release 02/09/17

Statement from Chief Michael Pristoop

Chief Michael Pristoop issued a statement this morning concerning his leaving the Annapolis Police Department.

Chief Pristoop said, "It has been a sincere privilege and the honor of my professional life to lead the Annapolis Police Department and serve alongside some of the most dedicated and committed law enforcement professionals in this country. I am incredibly proud of the many public safety accomplishments that have made Annapolis a safer and stronger community. I wish the very best to our hardworking police officers and ask that our city continue to support them to build upon their progress and continue to forge strong bonds with the community we serve."

