Homicide Arrest

Original Release 06/26/16:

On Sunday, June 26th at 2:13 p.m. Officers from the Annapolis Police Department responded to the 1400 block of Tyler Ave. for a report of a shooting. Upon arrival officers located Shaun Crowdy, 23, of Annapolis inside his vehicle suffering from gunshot wounds.

Crowdy was transported to Anne Arundel Medical Center where he died from his injuries. Anyone with information about this incident was asked to contact Detective Charles Bealefeld at 410-260-3439 or cebealefeld@annapolis.gov.

UPDATE:

On Thursday, July 14th Jaymarri Boykin, 19, of Annapolis was arrested for the murder of Shawn Crowdy.

Investigation by Detectives from the Annapolis Police Department led to Boykin being identified as a suspect in this homicide. Boykin was charged with first and second degree murder, use of a firearm in a felony or violent crime, first and second degree assault, handgun on person, and illegal possession of a regulated firearm. Boykin is being held at the Jennifer Road Detention Center.

“I commend the Annapolis Police Department for their hard work and ensuring the public safety of the citizens of Annapolis,” said Mayor Michael Pantelides.

“This was a calculated murder in the middle of the day. The citizens of Annapolis are much safer with this individual off the streets,” said Chief Michael Pristoop of the Annapolis Police Department. “I credit fast and thorough work of our officers and detectives.”

Detectives continue to investigate this crime and urge anyone with information to contact them at 410-260-3439.
