P. E. D. A. L. to Stop Annapolis Bike Thefts

P.E.D.A.L. is an acronym for Photograph, Engrave, Document, And Lock. The Annapolis Police Department is asking citizens to P.E.D.A.L. to stop bicycle theft. Photograph your bicycle, use your cell phone and include photos of any writing on your bicycle, anything distinctive, and the serial number. Engrave personal information like your name or phone number on the frame of the bicycle. Document all the details of your bicycle, make, model, serial number, color. You can do this with the online Watch Your Bike Program at www.annapolis.gov/police. And Lock your bike to a fixed object when you are out and about. When you're at home make sure you place your bike out of public view or put it in a locked garage or shed, or use a lock to secure it. Even leaving your bicycle unattended and unlocked for a few minutes can leave it open to thieves.
