June 11 – Annapolis Police Kids Club – Trip to Glenn L. Martin Maryland Aviation Museum

In the last 24 hours Annapolis Police officers responded to 92 calls for service and arrested 11 people.

Thefts from Vehicles – 201600001910, 1912, and 1925 – Unit blocks of Wardour Dr, Kent Rd, and Loudon Lane – 05/11 at 9:30am to 05/12 at 6pm: Credit cards, Ray-Ban sunglasses, a Leatherman multi-tool, a black folding knife, and a UE Bluetooth speaker were stolen from two unlocked vehicles. An additional unlocked vehicle was entered, but nothing was reported stolen. On 05/12 at 4am an officer patrolling the area because of the reports of thefts saw a vehicle in the 600 block of Melvin Av. The operator of the vehicle failed to stop for officers, but the vehicle was later located unoccupied near by. The vehicle was towed to the police station and the investigation is continuing to identify the owner and occupants of the vehicle.

Burglary – 201600001911 – Unit block of Brooke Av – 05/11 at 10pm to 05/12 at 6am: An unlocked ground floor window to the home was entered while the residents were at home and asleep and the contents of two purses were stolen.

Burglary – 201600001924 – Unit block of Lafayette Av – 05/12 from 7am to 7:30am: An unlocked sliding door to the home was entered and money was stolen from a wallet.

First Degree Assault – 201600001933 – 1100 block of Madison St – 05/13 at 1:25am: Officers were in the area when they heard a woman screaming for help. They located an adult female victim who reported that a man she knew just pointed a handgun at her. The victim reported that she was outside an apartment building with the man, Maxwell Henry, 30, of Towson, when he became upset and pushed her. He left the area, but quickly returned, displayed a handgun, and threatened to shoot her. Henry left the area again and the woman began screaming, attracting the officers' attention. The officers immediately began looking for the man and saw him in the area. After a brief foot chase officers detained Henry and located a loaded handgun near by. Henry is a convicted felon, he was arrested and charged with first and second degree assault, reckless endangerment, four counts relating to possession of the handgun. Henry is currently awaiting an initial hearing on these charges before the District Court Commissioner.

Annapolis Police Kids Club

You're invited to Aviation Day with the Annapolis Police Department! Please join us for a trip to the Maryland State Police Aviation Command and the Glenn L. Martin Maryland Aviation Museum on Saturday, June 11th. We will depart the Annapolis Police Department at 8:45am and return at approximately 2:30 pm.
