Scam Alert

The Annapolis Police Department received two reports of scam phone calls on 05/23. Citizens reported that a male caller identifying himself as an Annapolis Police officer told them they had warrants for their arrest and gave instructions on what to do. The caller spoofed our phone number, so the Caller ID showed our 410-268-9000 administrative phone line. It is unclear what the caller hoped to gain by the calls. Officers do sometimes call people with open warrants or summonses. If you think you might have a warrant please go to your local police department to check.
