Suspicious Door-to-Door Solicitors

Annapolis Police Department has received reports of workers claiming to be from an energy company going door-to-door and asking residents to show them their utility bills. While this can be a tactic used by legitimate companies to attempt to get customers to switch their energy provider, never hand over your bills or personal information to people going door-to-door. You do not have to answer the door and can always call the police department at 410-268-4141 to request an officer to come out and check on the solicitors. In Annapolis door-to-door solicitation requires a permit.
