USNA Gate 1 and 3 Traffic Impacted for Next Three Weeks

Due to emergency repairs to a high-temperature hot water line at the United States Naval Academy, inbound and outbound traffic at Gate 1 and Gate 3 will be affected for the next three weeks.

Repair of the line will start today, September 18, and is expected to take approximately three weeks and during this time, the normal inbound lanes at USNA's Gate 1, located at the corner of King George Street and Randall Street, will be closed. Meanwhile, the outbound lanes will be used for inbound traffic from 6-9 a.m.

All other times, Gate 1 will accommodate only outbound traffic.

Maryland Avenue from King George Street to Hanover Street, near Gate 3, will also be affected. Both lanes will be inbound only Monday through Sunday for the next three weeks.
