Neighborhood Watch Meeting

The next Neighborhood Watch meeting will be held on Tuesday, December 9 from 6:30pm to 8pm at Annapolis Police Headquarters, 199 Taylor Avenue. This meeting's topic will be "The Year in Review". We will be highlighting the good, the bad, and the stupid crime highlights from 2014. Everything from homicides to half-marathons, we'll cover it all. Food will be served so please RSVP to Cpl. Amy Miguez at 410-268-9000 ext. 7261 or amiguez@annapolis.gov.

Burglaries

In the past few days there have been three burglaries to homes in Annapolis. In two cases entry to the home was gained by forcing or breaking a window. In one case the home was unlocked. Please make sure to lock your doors and windows and report any unusual activity in your neighborhood by calling 410-268-4141 or 9-1-1 in an emergency. The burglaries appear to be occurring in the early evening hours from 3pm to 10pm. Anne Arundel County Police Department has received reports of deception burglaries where the criminal poses as a utility worker who tries to gain entrance to your home. Do not allow these people into your home. Ask them to remain outside and immediately dial 9-1-1.

Counterfeit Money

In the past several weeks several businesses in Annapolis have reported receiving counterfeit 20 and 50 dollar bills. Please go to http://www.secretservice.gov/money\_detect.shtml for more information on how to detect counterfeit money. If you suspect someone is giving you counterfeit money call 410-268-4141 or 9-1-1 in an emergency.

Brr! It's Cold Out There

It may be cold outside, but it will be colder without a car. Don't warm up your car for a thief! Help us prevent the next auto theft by not leaving your vehicle's engine running with the key in the ignition and the doors unlocked.
