

Services & Resources

Available to Residents

Housing and Community Development Service

Theresa Wellman

Community Development Administrator

Phone 410-263-7961 x7798
tcw@annapolis.gov

Provides information and referrals to organizations that provide help to find housing, become a homeowner, provide housing counseling and provide services to the homeless.

Provide grants to social service agencies which provide services to low and moderate income persons such as help with finding housing, budgeting, etc.

Oversees the City's Moderately Priced Dwelling Unit (MPDU) Program which provides below market price homes for sale and for rent for households at 100% of median income and below.

Constituent Services

Hilary Raftovich

Constituent Services Officer and Ombudsman

Phone: 443-221-0699
Email: ConstituentServices@Annapolis.gov

Advocate for all Annapolis residents regarding City issues. These might include investigating and addressing constituent complaints regarding City services.

Clearinghouse for all constituent concerns addressed to the Office of Mayor to ensure that the appropriate communication for each request is properly communicated to City Departments.

Office of Community Service

Erin Lee

Community Services Coordinator

Phone: 410-562-0169
Email: emlee@annapolis.gov

Connects residents to services including, but not limited to:

- Workforce Development
- Eviction Prevention
- Childcare
- Food Insecurity
- Elder Care
- Domestic Violence Prevention
- Substance Abuse Prevention
- Mental Health

Partners with Annapolis Police Department and NoHarm team

