CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHY

Frieda K. Wildey is a 25-year resident of Chesapeake Avenue in Eastport with husband Jim Wildey in a restored and renovated 1895 Victorian home. A native Texan and a University of Texas graduate, Frieda is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Eastport Civic Association, the City of Annapolis Maritime Advisory Board, the Annapolis Democratic Central Committee, and the District 30 Democratic Club. Also, for the last 16 years, Frieda has been an Offshore Racing Coach and Fleet Captain with the U.S. Naval Academy Varsity Offshore Sailing Team. Professional experience includes work with the following organizations: Ericsson Racing Team (Volvo Ocean Race Syndicate), City of Annapolis Office of Economic Development, Farr International, Inc., the Volvo Ocean Race, OPERATION SAIL 2000, the Whitbread Round the World Race, International Sailing Federation, and U.S. Sailing Association/U.S. Olympic Committee. Frieda's volunteer experience includes participating as a founding Board of Directors member and volunteer with the Annapolis Box of Rain Foundation. She has also volunteered with the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, Annapolis Yacht Club Regattas, and Save the Coconuts, among others.

Early political experience includes volunteering on many Democratic campaigns as a member of University of Texas Young Democrats for numerous candidates, including Ann Richards and Lloyd Doggett, as well as Jimmy Carter's Presidential campaign, which resulted in receiving an appointment to the Congressional Liaison office at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development under Secretary Patricia Harris and later a position with a Texas law firm in Washington, D.C. as a lobbyist on energy issues. Most recently served as a volunteer for Democrats in City, County, District, and National elections.
